

Symbolic computations on diffieties - a brief introduction to Jets package

Hynek Baran

Silesian University in Opava, Czech Republic

Abstract

Jets is a set of Maple procedures to facilitate solution of differential equations in total derivatives on diffieties. Otherwise said, Jets is a tool to compute symmetries, conservation laws, zero-curvature representations, recursion operators, and many other invariants of systems of partial differential equations.